REA ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

SPAN

ISSUED WEEKLY FOR THE ENTIRE REA STAFF

JAN. 22, 1954

WALT CLAYTON RE-ELECTED

Walter Clayton was re-elected president of the REA Athletic Association at the first meeting of the new Board of Directors the day before yesterday. Walt was named president last July and subsequently guided the Association through the revision of its by-laws which called for a change in election date. Under the new rules, the new board will serve until September when the regular annual elections will be held.

Other officers named included William Riley, vice president; Paul Carroll, treasurer; and Louise Robinson, secretary.

SPAN SCOOPS

Congratulations to the J. Warner Pyles, today marking their 37th wedding anniversary. Information Services welcomes back Mary Payne, former Info-gal, and newcomer Joyce Troshinsky, Drew McLay's girl Friday . . . . Joe Petito has a new two-tone Plymouth with white side-wall tires. . . . . Tony DiMazio's new slogan is "Forward in the Morning, Backward at Night." Get him to explain it to you . . . . . Southeast Section of Telephone Loans Division welcomes Carl Will Bark. . . . . Eileen and Harold Kelley are back after a Florida jaunt. . . . . Miriam Kaplan is now in the Northeast Area office . . . . . John Samokar dressed in a hurry the other day and came to work in his bedroom slippers. Incidentally, John upbraided us for not telling him about the recent plea for single edge razor blades. "Why didn't Gillette us know about it?" he complains. Additional horrible puns continue to trickle in. Lucile Holmes says the whole thing is barbarous and threatens to beard us in our den. But, after all, why continue? We're poles apart. . . . . Do you have any news or ads for SPAN? If so, please write them (do not phone) to SPAN, room 3314, before the deadline Thursday noon each week. Word limit on ads is 25 words . . . . . Mildred Buchanan is in Rochester, Minn., for a physical check-up . . . . . If you forget to send your contributions to SPAN, send them or give them to any of the following reporters: Wilma Kell, Sue Bennington, Libby Allred, or Florence Smith. . . . . The new Credit Union dividend is now available to all share holders. Send or bring your book to REA Federal Credit Union, room 1373 South Building. The office is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 9:30 a. m. to 1 p.m. Closed from 11:30 to noon. . . . . Harry Reising has some beautiful three-dimensional color slides which he took himself with a special stereopticon camera. . . . . Western Area welcomes Virginia Robey, secretary to Art Frank. . . . . Charlie Wake and Al King currently are fighting common cold germs . . . . . Mrs. Dowling, former cashier in the 2nd wing snack bar, sends a belated "thank you" to REAers for their Christmas cards and remembrances . . . . . Got any snap-shots to be developed? Bring them to any cafeteria or snack-bar cashier. One day service at no extra cost—another benefit of your Welfare Association . . . . . Interested in dramatics? The Agriculture Players will hold a luncheon meeting Tuesday, Feb. 2. Call 5611 for reservations.
